The question of stone and the best sources of supply is fast beginning to be one of general public interest in view of the many improvements contemplated by the many improvements contemplated by the county and city governments. Most of the stone used here is known as blue limestone and has hitherto been brought from three sources, G-ider & Denie's quarry, 145 miles out on the Mem-phic on Charleston relibered. Respect & phis and Charleston railroad, Berger & Ryan's, near Russellville, Ky., 226 miles away, and at Rose Claire, Ill., on the Ohio river. All these quarries furnish an ex-cellent quality of stone and yield A HANDSOME REVENUE to their owners. A fourth quarry access sible to Memphis has just been opened by Messrs. Smith & Bettis, of this city. Messrs. Smith & Bettis, of this city. The latter was seen yesterday by an APPEAL man, to whom he gave an interesting description of his quarry and the manner in which he stone is gotten out. The description will no doubt be news to the majority of people who ride, walk and drive over miles of macadam, cobble and block-stone streets every day without once stopping to inquire how they came there and from whence. Bettis first went there and from whence. Bettis first went over to the Kansas City railroad to look at a ledge which some one had located, but as he could not make terms with the vner, started out on A TRACK-WALKING EXPEDITION, earch of another quarry. At Imboden, miles from Memphis, he found what desired. At that point Spring river, the of the clearest and most limpid of reams, skirts the foot of a rocky knoll, he track of the railroad takes the course of the stream for a short distance, cutting as to display to advantage its strong composition. Fifty-four acres were at once purchased, and on January 24th work loved most of the time, with acilities for getting out ten car-loads a lay. The rock is known as bastard limestone and is composed of sand, flint and limestone. Unlike the blue limestone, however, it cannot be burned to lime. The quarry in its thickest part measures about 100 feet, sloping down in terraces to the bank of Spring river. The rock is traversed horizontally by seams, making Willey B. Miller, who died in New York on Thesday night last, will be buried in Elmwood Cemetery. Notice of the time and place of the funeral will be given in the Appeal.

To the fiditors of the Appeal:

My attention was called late this afternoon to the card of the Rev. S. A. Steel, in which he says I made use in my sermon on the Sunday law of "violent and abusive language." Upon my honor I can find no such language; but if there is any sentence in it which Brother Steel or any other minister of Memphis considers "violent and abusive," I beg leave to retract it: and I wish, moreover, to say the first of the Appeal. to retract it; and I wish, moreover, to say that if any Christian minister feels personally insulted at or by anything I said in that sermed I did not intend it, and humbly beg his pardon. What I said about ministers in all our churches believing as I did upon this subject, but keeping silent because they were afraid of persecution, had no reference whatever to any minister in Memphis but I know that assertion to be true.

In the meantime the hotel is run by Lawyer Snaggs, and the complicitions and situations he is mixed up in scarcely afford the audience a moment's time in which to draw breath. The singing last night was excellent, and the dancing was worthy of mention."

Last night at the residence of Mr. C. C. Graham, on Sheiby street, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson and daughter were presented by the or-Confederat, poldiers of Memphis with two exquisite and unique floral designs. In the absence of Judge H. T. Ellett, chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, who is still suffering from his wounded arm and hence could not attend, Judge T. W. I have suffered for many years from ulcers of my legs, often very large and painful, during which time I used almost everything to effect a cure, but in vain. I took Swift's Specific by advice of a friend, and in a short time was a sound and well. EDWIN J. MILLER. Penbody Hotel.

I have been afflicted with Scrofula for twels I have been afflicted with Scrofula for twelve years, and have had sores on me as large as a man's hand for that length of time. Last summer I was so bad off that I could not wear elothing. I had spent hundreds of dollars in the effort to be cured, but all to no purpose, and had injured myself with Mercury and Potash. Your Swift's Specific oured me promptly and permanently, and I hope every like sufferer will take it.

R. L. HIGH, Laconia, Ark. PROMINENT BAPTIST PREACHER. I was laid low by an attack of Promehius and liniater's Sore Throat, and my life was almost espaired of, when my physician said try S. S.
